It’s November, can you believe it?!

It’s hard to believe that November is here and the end of the semester is around the corner!

October was a great month for Mentorship, with our first ever “First Summer Workshop” and our annual Stressbusters & Study Skills event. Now November provides an opportunity for more fun activities! We have a LOT of great events to look forward to.

Here’s what you should know about this month:

We are offering a larger variety of events, so pace yourself, find what suits you, and plan ahead. November is a month of high stress for students since midterms and papers are due this month and Thanksgiving Break approaches faster than we expect. Schedule in relaxation time when you study for exams to give your brain a rest (hint: attend any Mentorship event this month!), and avoid procrastinating so that you can feel relieved and calm throughout the remainder of the semester. Take care of yourself this month and we’ll see you soon!

Look forward to:

- Announcement of the Scavenger Hunt winners!
- Pizza Tasting! Nov 21
- Law School Tour! Nov 5
In October, Mentorship held its first EVER “First Summer workshop” to help mentees think ahead about their upcoming Summer plans. We had presentations from UROP (Undergraduate Research Opportunity Program), CGIS (Center for Global and Intercultural Study), Semester in Detroit and ICSPR (Interuniversity Consortium for Political and Social Research). We also distributed a pamphlet of other opportunities and associated deadlines. Some included: UM Biological Station, New England Literature Program, North American Summer Service Team, Leadershape, D-SIP (Development Summer Internship Project), Camp Davis, Camp Kesem, Semester at Sea, and Summer in NYC. This Summer will be here before you know it! Happy planning!

It’s time to De-stress! A look back.

At the annual Stressbusters event, Mentorship and Transfer Connections collaborated to bring students together for a collective sigh of stress-relief. With massages, chair yoga, crafts, delicious food and cupcakes from Jefferson Market, and the opportunity to receive academic advice or meet with a nutritionist, many students, faculty and staff left the event stress-free!

The Michigan Clinical Law Program holds full jury trials every semester on behalf of second & third-year law students who are enrolled in Clinical Law I / Legal Advocacy Seminar. This is an opportunity to see how a courtroom trial is conducted from the inside. Jurors will sit on a jury which will actually deliberate and decide a case after hearing evidence. Jurors can select from whichever of these dates that work best:

- Wednesday, November 6 -- 1:00 pm - 4:00 pm
- Thursday, November 7 -- 1:00 pm - 4:00 pm
- Monday, November 11 -- 1:00 pm - 4:00 pm
- Monday, November 4 -- 1:00 pm - 4:00 pm
- Tuesday, November 12 -- 1:00 pm - 4:00 pm
- Wednesday, November 13 -- 1:00 pm - 4:00 pm
- Thursday, November 14 -- 1:00 pm - 4:00 pm

The seven trials will all be criminal prosecutions. All of the cases will be tried by student-lawyers who are training in the Law School’s general civil/criminal clinical program. At each trial, the jurors will be questioned briefly about their qualifications to serve, they will be sworn and the case will then be heard. Jurors are then given proper legal instructions and are asked to deliberate and decide the case. The exercise is intended to very closely simulate a real trial. After the trial, jurors will have a chance to talk with the law students, professors and judges. Each trial should take approximately three hours.

The trials will all be conducted in the UM Law School Moot Courtroom, Room 232 Hutchins Hall (which is the building on the corner of State and Monroe Streets in Ann Arbor - 625 S. State St.)

Students interested in participating as jurors should contact Kathy Norman Heady at: knheady@umich.edu or 734-936-4162.
